

THE RIGHT PAIR OF SUNGLASSES FOR YOUR FACE

Oblong Face

To make an oblong face appear shorter and more balanced, try frames that have more depth than width.

Heart Shaped Face

Choose frames with low-set temples or those that have a heavier look at the bottom of the frames because they will minimize the width at the top of your face and widen the look of your chin.

Square Face

A good general rule of thumb is to look for glasses shapes that are the opposite of your face shape. Round and oval glasses are the best choice for people with square faces.

Oval Face

If you have an oval face, frames that sweep up tend to compliment the cheekbone and slim down the jawline.

Round Face

Select a frame with strong angles and straight lines. Full-rim and semi-rimless glasses with rectangular or square frames are usually best for round faces.

Diamond Face

Choose frames that balance your forehead: curvy brow lines are best.

Opt for wider glasses and sunglasses to cover your cheekbones and create a
